AN AFTERNOON OF ART

Asian Pears

Judith Secco, a native of Connecticut's northwest corner, has been an avid self-taught photographer all of her life. She began with an in-home darkroom focusing mainly on black and white images and now her passion is digital photography. Judith's images balance on the line between photography and fine art, portraying nature in a unique and artistic way. She is a member of the Fine Line Art Gallery in Woodbury, CT and has won numerous awards for her work, which has been shown in Connecticut, Massachusetts, Vermont and New York. Visit her website at www.judithsecco.com

Judith's photography will be on exhibit from April 1st through September 31st, 2009 with a reception on Saturday, May 30th from 4 to 6 PM. A portion of the proceeds from her sales will go to the Berkshire Taconic Foundation for The Jane Lloyd Fund.
